UNPARALLELED SCHEME FOR NOVEMBER.

SATURDAY, - NOVEMBER 10, 1855.

My Client's Story,

It was late one Saturday evening in December,

It was late one Saturday evening in December, when I received a letter, which, on opening, I found to be from Walter Moreton; and the purport of the letter was, to request my immediate presence at Cambridge, in the capacity both of a friend and of a lawyer. The letter concluded thus: "Do not delay your journey many hours after receiving this. My urgency will be explained by the change you will perceive in yours, Walter Moreton."

I had known Walter Moreton in youth and in manhood: we had been intimate, without having been altogether friends; and the attraction which his company possessed for me, arose rather from the shrewdness of his remarks than from any sympathy of feeling between us. Of lato years I had seen comparatively little of Moreton. I knew that he had married a thin a rich widower; that he had married a second time, and that he was now the father of a second time, and that he was now the father of

"Moreton," said I, rising and approaching him, and laying my hand gently on his shoulder, we were once companions—almost friends; as a friend, as well as a lawyer, you have sent for me.

There is some mystery here, of which I am sure it was your intention to disburden yourself. Whatever the secret be, it is safe with me. But I tell you plainly that if you are resolved to make beggars of your innocent children without giving a sufficient reason for it, some other than Charles

"Drowned in the Cam," said I; "yes, I knew of this misfortnne; but I did not know that you were present."

"I was—I was—present?" said Moreton, laying a peculiar emphasis on the word. Ay, Thornton—you've hit the word—I was present—but listen: I told you the dark object floated within an oar's length of the boat; at once the three boys made a spring to the side of the boat, extending arms and oars to intercept it; and—in an instant the boat was keel nppermost?"

Moreton pronounced the last words rapidly, and in an under tone, and stopped; he raised the wine decanter from the table, but let it drop again. Moreton had yet said nothing to eriminate himself; the incident appeared, from his narrative, purely accidental; and I therefore said, "Well, Moreton, the boys were unhappily drowned; but it was the consequences of their own imprudence."

"Thornton," said he, "you are there to hear confession; I am here to make it; 'tis of no uses shrinking from it; fill me a glass of wine, for my hand trembles. Now, two of the boys—the two onngest—I never saw; as God is my jndge, I believe if I had seen the youngest I would have one my uttermost to save him. I suppose they ank beneath the boat, and floated down below the surface. The eldest, he rose close to me; we were not twenty yards from the bank; I could have "Thornton," said he, "we shall never meet again."

"There are remedies, my friend," said I—"there are remedies, my friend, said and an antiser of the form of the service of the se

"Hnsh, Thornton!" repeated he, hastily, and in a tone so altered and so singular that it startled me.

pour it out for mo; my nerves are shattered; another glass—now, sit down—no, not there—ay, ay—one other glass, Thornton."

I took my place in a large high-backed chair, as Walter Moreton directed me; and he, placing himself a little out of my view, spoke as follows:

"It is now upward of ten years, as you know, Thornton, since I married my first wife, the daughter of Mr. Bellenden—old Bellenden the lawver. She you also know, was the child of a little fears of another attack,"

Foreign panpers and felons is the usual style of the Know-Nothing organs, when they speak of foreigners at all. It is the style of the editor of the Journal. Beautiful terms to apply to the thousame race as ourselves, and seeking refuge here from the same motives that prompted our fathers to seek a home in this New World.

The conclusion of the article reads in the following genuine demagogue style :

The editor of the Democrat may prefer the despo'lsms of Europe, or even the power of the Itoman Pontiff, att we are for the American Republic, for the American inon-indicated will be difficult for the editor of the Democrat, or all the rest of the unit-American organs and leaders, to convince the marve-born Americans that the foreign paupers and felons of Europe are better fitted to rule America than the one of the soil.

"The editor of the Democrat MAY prefer." Well, we are thankful for such permission, for we think do of Know-Nothing republicanism. There is not much choice between the two. The latter is toiling to get up a war of races, and to crush ont religious fiberty. When it has accomplished these ings occupy the same ground:

The Banner says there is a difference of opinion among the Americans on "the Nebraska question." We don't think so; but we are sare there is no such difference of opinion among the Republicans. If the published resolves of the Grand Conneties of the American party held in Indianapolis are reliable, the Americans of the State occupy preity much the same ground that the Republicans do on the siavery question. There is a vast difference between the Americans in Resulucky and other slave States and the Americans in Indiana. By the former the party in Indiana is ignored; it is spokes of as a rotten limb hown from the American party proper by the Grand Conneti held in Philadelphia. It has been asserted by the Louisville Democrat, "that the Americans, in the adoption of its platform at Philadelphia, did expel from its body all Abelition and Freesoil elements."

These Freesoil-Abolition elements constituted the entire representation of the Americans from Indiana and the free States. There was not a single member from Indiana that was not espelled (we use the word of our Lonisville contemporaries) from the American party by the Grand Conneti of the Order for the whole Union, at Philadelphia. Subsequently, the State Council Indored the action of its expelled (from the Grand National Council) representatives.

Tarkers.—Undoubtedly the highest personal accomplishment in the world is to be a good talker. With this charm alone John Wilker, though a prodigy of personal ugliness, was the most attractive men of his time. "It takes me," he said to Lord Sandwich, "inst fifteen minutes to take my face off." It was this power, and not his poems, nor his dictionary, nor his heavy letters from the Hebrides, that made Dr. Johnson the autocrat of his day among men of culture, and will keep his memory grern while the English language remains to prove that, in spite of his boorishness and insolence, and absurd prejndices, he was the most charming talker the world has seen. It was this power, more than all others, that made the friends of Coleridge forget that he was deficient in manly honor, (the most fatal of defects), that he was a slave to one of the worst of vices, and won for him not merely the admiration, but the love and esteem of all who listened to his wonderful ntterances. Singular Affair.

A young man named Edmund Dean was oxam ined at Prescott, Pierce county, Wisconsin, on the 12th inst., on a charge of having conspired to rob and murder John L. Miner, of that town, and was held to bail for his appearance at the Circuit Court, in the sum of $2,000, in default of which he was committed to jail. The circumstances of affair are detailed as follows by the Presco Transcript: Dean went to Gilbert C. Jarvis, at the Boughton

House, at about sun-set, on Wednesday evening shook hands with him, and asked him if he was "making much money in this upper country."

Jarvis told him he was not, except by hard work.
He then asked Jarvis if he was "afraid of blood," and being answered in the negative, invited him to take a walk, as he had something to tell him. They went down the levee a few rods, sat down They went down the levee a few rods, sat down on a log, and Dean told him that Jehn L. Miner had $6,000 and a gold watch in his house, which, if Jarvis would join him, they might obtain. Jarvis pretonded to concur, and Dean proposed that they should go to Mr. Miner's at twelve o'clock, knock him down and kill him, get the money and watch, and set fire to the house. "Then," said he, "we will waylay Pete Wright as he goes home, kill him, and get $200 more, which I know he has about him." Jarvis went away, promising to see him again in fifteen minutes, and informed Mr. Miner what was "in the wind."

It was thought prudent to have another witness.

It was thought prudent to have another witness in the case, and Mr. Ephraim Thornton was invited to go down and pretend to be an accomplice. He did so; Jarvis introduced him as being "all right," and the three entered into the details of right," and the throe entered into the details of the plan with such apparent good faith that a fourth person who overheard the conversation, supposed they were all of one mind, although he was not acquainted with either of the parties, and it was so dark that he could not tell who they were. Doan told his supposed conferers that he was accustomed to such auventures; had been ar-rested and tried in Chicago for robbery, and ac-quitted, but was guilty; had stolen three horses on the prairies and run them off; was engaged in circulating bogus coin, and expected a box of it from Cincinnati in a few days; had a partner at Kinnikinnie, etc. After getting all they wanted Kinnikinnie, etc. After getting all they wanted out of him, sheriff Olive came np and invited him to go into his enstedy. It is also one of the best lights ever known to produce correct likenesses either of children or adults. The red hair and bluc es se have heretofore been difficult to take; but it is no longer any tronble to give them the real artistic disposition of light and shade. The new Sky Light operates as well in cloudy as in clear weather, and gives the likeness the true tone of life. The public will therefore look to their own interest by calling on Roesberg before going to any other gallery, as there you can buy cheaper, receive a etter case, and a much truer likeness than at any ther place in the city. G. NICHOLAS', 85 Fourth st., bc; Man & Market The Best! The Very Best!!

MANY PERSONS WHO HAVE tried the articles for sale by others, and been disappointed in their expectations, have decidedly asserted that J. Cristaderu's Excelsior Liquid Hair Dye is not only the best preparation for dyeing the Hair, but that the others which have been so greatly lauded bear no comparison whatever to his.

J. Cristadoro's Excelsior Liquid Hair Dye will invariably perform what it promises, which no other dyes will do; the black it produces is not a dead, flittering color, but beautiful and life-like; the brown and auburn assimilate so nearly with the colors of nature that it is impossible to detect the presence of a dye.

It can be applied by any one, without any previous preparation of the hair, and with the smallest amount of trouble, and is so fixed and permanent in its nature that nothing will affect or cause it to fade. For sale wholesale and retail by

Why Females Suffer in Health. THE MARRIED WOMAN'S Private Medical Companion.

PROPESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN. One Hundreth Edition (500,000) 18mo., pp. 250. A standard work of established reputation, found class ed in the catalogues of the great Trade Sales of New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and sold by the principal booksellers in the United States.

BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU.

Every woman can here discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, and cause of her complaint, and be spared much 107 anxiety and suffering, as well as the unpleasa need or instruction and advice in respect to her situation, which she will here find. This book tells her what is the matter, and tells her what to do for it, in simple but chaste words, and such as she can understand.

Those enfering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, or from prolapsus uters (falling of the womb) or from finer albus, will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration, and relief.

Much distress of mind, as well as thousands pecuni arily, might be saved to every husband, if the simplest aws appertaining to the marriage state were better nnderstood. That they are better nnderstood is traceable to that natural and almost commendable sensitiveness hat will rather suffer than consult or converse with even a medical man in respect to complaints peculiar to What is the Use Of any one paying a high price for an article when the same thing can be had for a less price, and at the same time as good in every respect, (and better in some), as he kigh priced "article." Carpenter & Swymmer make 'Ambrotypes" for 2¢ that will compare with the best in he cety. For brilliance of tone and finish, they are unequalled. Another great Item is, they are put up with only one glass, so that you need not have your pockets doubte lined to ensure its safety, if you should wish to carry it three squares. The double glass is of itself actions; it adds no beauty to the picture—makes it none the less liable to damage, and is only a feeble breast work for a weak enemy.

PITTSBURO, November 9-P. M. There are 7 feet 6 lnches water in the channel and at a stand. Weather clear and cool. By Private advices, we learn that Kentucky river ss rising very fast yesterday.

FOR NEW ORLEANS .- The fine steamer Swan, Capt-Gid Witham, leaves this evening for New Orleans. We have spoken before in full of this toat as being a Lonisville boat and in charge of Louisville men. We cannot do more than commend her to our shippers and travelers, being assumed that the officers will do all in their rower to render satisfaction.

FOR SAINT LOUIS .- The splendid passenger steam Panl Jones leaves as above this morning at 10 o'clock .-Passengers can rely upon a pleasant trip on her. Capt Daley commands, and J. F. Gaitree is in the office. She eaves from the city wharf.

FOR NEW ORLEANS .- The splendid steamer Empire Captain Meekin, leaves this evening. Her officers are all that passengers could desire. FOR NEW ORLEANS .- The fine steamer Gulnare leave for New Orleans, from the city wharf, on Sunday morning. She is one of the first class Cincinnati boats, and better officers can be found than Captain Geo. Linn and his clerks. The Moses McLellan is the regular mail boat for acinnati to-day at 12 o'eiock. FOR WHEELING AND PITTSBURG.-The fine steamer acob Poe is the regular packet for above ports to-day YOR PITTSBURG .- The U. S. Mail leaves for Pittsburg

o-day at 12 o'clock. FOR FRANKFORT AND WOODFORD LANDING .- The fin packet Blue Wing No. 2, leaves as above to-day at 3 'clock. The locks having been repaired, and late rain caused a rise in the river, she will continue regularly in the trade.

The Beile Quigley is the regular packet to-day oon for Madison and Carrolton. THANKS .- Our friends of the steamer Fanny Bullits ave our thanks for manifest, memorandum, and New Orleans papers. She returns to New Orleans on Mon-

The Nashville Union, of the Sth, says At last, "here's that water." We would observe to all concerned that from present appearances there will be, former time to come, a boundful supply of water, sufficient to admit every class of teamers to enter the arena for public favor. Since our last, we have had very heavy rains, which has caused the river to rise from its declining bed, to what now might be termed a sellable stage.

[From the Evening Edition.] PITTSBURO, Nov. 9-M. There are 7 feet 6 lnches water in the channel and ising. Weather clear and pleasant. 1. The river is still rising with 61/2 feet in canal and

The Process of getting Passmore Wil-

On Saturday morning last Passmore William-son appeared in the Philadelphia U. S. District Court and petitioned as follows: Petition.—U. S. A. vs. Williamson, District Court U. S. Eastern District of Penn. To the Hon. the Judge of the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Penn-

The petition of Passmore Williamson respectfully showeth:

That he desires to purge himself of the contempt because of which he is now attached, and to that end is willing to make true answers to such interrogatories as may be addressed to him by the Court touching the matter herotofore inquired of the writ of habeas corpus to him directed at the relation of John H. Wheeler.

Wherefore he prays that he may be permitted to purge himself of said contempt, by making true answers to each interrogatories as may be addressed to him by the Hon. Court touching the premises.

Affirmed and subscribed before me, Nev. 2, 855. Chas. F. HEAZLITT, U. S. Com.

Judge Kane, after consideration, replied to the Judge Kane, after consideration, replied to the petitioner as follows:

"Passmore Williamson: The court has received your petition, and, upon consideration thereof, have thought right to grant the prayer thereof. You will therefore make here in open Court, your solemn affirmation, that in the return heretofore made by you to the writ of habeas corpus which issued from this Court at the relation of John H. Wheeler, and in the proceedings consequent there now willing to make true answers to such interrogatories as may be addressed to you by the Court, touching the premises inquired of in the said writ of habeas corpus."

The required affirmation was then made in the form dictated by the Judge.

The following was the interrogatory to which Mr. Williamson was required to answer:

Did you, at the time of the service of the writ of habeas corpus at the relation of John H. Wheeler, or at any time during the period intervening between the service of said writ, by bringing before this honorable Court the persons of the slaves therein mentioned? If to this interrogatory you answer in the affirmative, state fully and particularly the mode in which you sought so to obey said writ, and all that you did tending to that end.

And, therefore, it is ordered that defendant, Passmore Williamson, do make the answers to said interrogatories.

Annexed is Mr. Williamson's answer:

I did not seek to obey the writ by producing the persons therein mentioned before the Court, because I had not, at the time of the service of the writ, the power over the custody or control of them, and therefore it was impossible for me to do so. I first heard of the writ of habeas corpus on Friday, July 20, between one and two o'clock, A. M., on my return from Harrisburg. After breakfast, about 9 o'clock, I went from my honse to Mr. Hopper's office, whon and where the return was prepared.

At ten o'clock, I came into Court as commanded by the writ. I sought to obey the writ by answering it truly, the parties not being in my possession or control, it was impossible for me to obey the writ by producing them. Since the service of the writ, I have not had the custody, possession or power over them, nor have I known where they were, except from common rumor or the newspaper reports in regard to their public appearance in the city or elsewhere.

Here some discussion arcse between the District Attorney and Mr. Williamson's counsel. Mr. Vandyke, District Attorney, contended that the reply of the defendant was evasive and contradictory. The Judge said the difficulty, he thought could be easily overcome by amending the answer, and to the suggestion of the Court it was amended in the following manner:

I did not seek to obey the writ by producing the mental supplies of Refined Sugars, Molasses, and Goiden Syrap, during the ensuing season.

and to the suggestion of the Court it was an ed in the following manner:

I did not seek to obey the writ by producing the persons in the writ mentioned before this Court.

I did not seek because I verily believed that it was entirely impossible for me to produce the said persons agreeably to the command of the Court.

This answer was then accepted by the Court and ordered filed.

This answer was then accepted by the Court and ordered filed.

Mr. Vandyke then submitted another interrogefory, the substance of which was whether or not Mr. Williamson had been guilty of mental reservations in his reply to the first interrogatory?

The Court overruled this interrogatory as superfluous and improper.

Judge Kane then said: "The contempt is now regarded as purged, and the party is released from custody. He is now reinstated to the position he occupied before the contempt was committed.—

Judge Kane replied, "He is. I understand from the remarks of the District Attorney, that a nolle prosequit has been entered in the case in this Court."

HORRIBLE AFFAIR—SUICIDE OF A YOUNG WOMAN FROM THE BEUTAL TREATMENT OF HER STEPFATHER.—We were called upon on Monday by D.
B. McKenney, Coroner of this county, to act as a juror in the investigation of the suicide, by poison, of Miss Hellen Holden, resident of North Dixon.
It appeared by matters brought to light in that investigation, that the unfortunate girl had received the most brutal treatment from her own mother and stepfather, that the veriest fiend from perdition could have perpetrated. We deem it not necessary to give in full all the outrages which have been enacted upon the deceased during the last two years. She has, repeatedly, been forced to leave the residence of her stepfather, whose name is Whitney, on account of brutal conduct toward her. It appeared from the evidence before the Coroner's jury that Whitney had, two years since, seduced her (his own stepdaughter) when she was but fourteen years of age. As near as could be ascertained, the victim committed the rash act under fear of becoming a mother, and thereby being disgraced: although it appeared from a post mortem examination that she was not exceinete. The poison, which was a preparation for the destruction of bed-bugs, of corresive sublimate, was taken on the 7th, and she lived until the 22d inst. It appeared that she was hamefully neglected during all this sickness, not even having hardly enough victuals to keep off hunger, or proper medical assistance.

BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILROAD!

THIS GREAT WORK OF INTERnal improvement (379 miles from Wheeling to Baltimore, and 408 to Washington,) was opened to the Ohio river in January, 1866, and has now been fully easted and approved, both as a freight and passenger route. This road is located in a romantic country, is solidly constructed, fully equipped, and carefully managed, and is thus rendered an attractive as well as a safe line for travelers. The late completion of the Central Ohio Road, from Columbus to the Unic river, near Wheeling, adds greatly to the importance of this route, offering, as it does, the most thorough Railroad connection with the entire West.

THIE ONLY THROUGH TICKETS RETWEEN connection with the entire West.

THE ONLY THROUGH TICKETS BETWEEN LOUISVILLE AND THE NATIONAL METROPOLIS are sold by this read, which runs direct to Washington without the delay of passing through Enlimore. It is also the only line by which bargage can be checked to Washington from the West. At Enlimore the roal washington from the West. At Enlimore the roal makes a direct connection with the Railroad to Philadelphia and New York, &c.

Passengers going East from Louisville, may proceed by steamboatto Cincinnati, and there take the Railroad to connect with this fine, or may leave Louisville by the Jeffersouville Railroad direct.

The Mail Steamers leave Louisville daily for Cincin nati, where they arrive so as to connect with the cars of the Little Miami Railroad at A. M. (or 5 p. m.) for Continuati, where they arrive so as to connect with the cars of the Little Miami Railroad at A. M. (or 5 p. m.) for Columbus, connecting there with Central Ohio Railroad, through Newark and Zaneaville to Belleair, on the Ohio, opposite Benwood station, 4 miles below Wheeling. At this place the connection with the B. and O. Railroad, through Newark and Zaneaville to Washington less than 2s hours, and to Washington less than 2s hours, and to Washington less than 2s hours.

THROUGH TICKETS are sold as follows: By mail steamers to Cincinnati, from Louisville to Washington, 31c; to Baltimore 317: to Philadelphia, 315; and to New York, 32s.

THROUGH TICKETS may also be had at the office of the Jeffersonville Railroad for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and Mississippi, Little Miami, and Central Ohio Railroad, and Mississippi, Little S0; to Baltimore, $17.50; to Philadelphia, $18.50; to New Yerk, $23.

At WHEELING or Benwood the passenger takes the superior cars of the B. and 0. Radiroad, which leave daily at 8 r. m., and 11:5 r. m., for Baltimore, Washington, (or Philadelphia) by close connection, arriving there in 16 or 17 hours, including stoppages. For safety, speed, regularity, beauty of the country, and general comfort, this road is second to nene in the Union.

YREIGHTS—With the largest equipment of any Railroad in the University of the country is prepared to do an immense business in the transportation of freights, which are carried with care and dispatch, and at rakes as low as those of any other first class line. The road makes immediate connection at the wharves and in the streets of Baltimore with the Railroad to Philadelphia and New York, steamers of Ericsson and Baltimore Steamenship Company's lines, by cannal and sea, to New York and Boston, steamers to Norfelk, Charleston, Savannah, x.c. vannah, S.c.
